Staccato Notes

News from the Wausau Conservatory of Music

Dear Friend of the Wausau Conservatory:

Welcome to the inaugural issue of Staccato Notes. Whether you are a student, a faculty member, board member, donor, or friend of the Conservatory, this monthly newsletter is designed to increase awareness of the exceptional events our school has to offer - and let you know about important dates, deadlines, and opportunities to volunteer. Of course, we're also happy to brag a bit about the amazing accomplishments of our students and faculty! Rest assured, we value your privacy - and we'll never sell or give away your email information to any outside organization - ever. So read on - and pass it along - but if you wish to unsubscribe, just send an email to editor@wausauconservatory.org and we'll be happy to oblige.

Band Camp - Last Chance to Enroll!

Summer Band Camp starts Monday - today is your absolute final day to enroll your son or daughter for a week they'll never forget! Call the registrar TODAY - and download the pdf file for all the details here.

2007 Summer Strings Camp

If you hurry, you can still register for Strings Camp, a unique opportunity for string students with two or more years of experience. Players will participate in rehearsals, master classes with guest artists, music theory and history, all while meeting new friends in a creative, encouraging atmosphere. This year's camp takes place June 25-29 from 12:30 to 4:30 each day. Email registrar@wausauconservatory.org or call 715-845-6279 ext.102 to sign up today!

All That Jazz.....

The WCM Jazz Ensemble will continue to meet over the summer, with rehearsals likely to resume after 4th of July weekend.

Students with jazz experience, strong technique, and a working knowledge of jazz rhythms and harmony are welcome to see John Greiner for an audition at any time. John can be reached through the Conservatory, or by emailing jdgreiner@verizon.net. Not quite there yet? John is always welcoming new and/or beginner students for any instrument in jazz studies! Contact the registrar's office for details at 715-845-6279 ext.102.

Congratulations to.....

Honors Orchestra: Two Wausau Conservatory of Music Students made it into the State Honors Orchestra. Congratulations to Tyler Kundinger, viola student of Michael Keelan and Matt Lind, violin student of Patrick Langer!

Wausau Conservatory of Music students received awards at the State Badger Keyboard Competition on Saturday, May 19 held in Appleton. Carolyn Doerr, Michael Doerr and Robert Doerr, all students of Bette Close, received Winner Awards, while Chris Lewis received an Honorable Mention.

Students of Mona Grote also participated. Maggie Ward received a runner up award, and Ashley Hanke, a Honorable Mention award.

Students of Lily Brismann receiving honorable mentions were Eleanor Battino, Mark Flage, Audrey Manser and Sophie Winter-Leigh. We are proud of you all!

Congratulations - violin student Janet Craigmiles just won the annual adult scholarship competition. Janet is a student of Michael Keelan.

WCM is pleased to have so many students who distinguished themselves and the Conservatory in regional and statewide competitions during the Spring of 2007.. In addition, it is our pleasure to announce winners of the Conservatory's own scholarship competitions for 2007-2008. These winners were chosen through a competitive audition before professional judges. To view the list click here:

Did you know?

Data from the National Educational Longitudinal Study of 2006 showed that music participants received more academic honors and awards than non-music students. Further, the percentage of students receiving A's and B's was significantly higher than the percentage of non-participants receiving those grades. Your commitment to the Wausau Conservatory of Music truly does make a difference in the lives of the children of our community!

Until next month,
