Choral Groups/Classes

Music Explorers

September 9 - December 16

Led by a university professor with 20+ years of experience, who specializes in early childhood education. This beginning music class introduces young children to the fun of music while socializing with other children their age. This class explores rhythm, melody, rhyming, movement, various instruments and basic fundamentals of music. Younger siblings are welcome to sit in and observe and parents are encouraged to participate. Taught by Ann Applegate. 14 weeks

NEW! Group Voice Class

Thursdays • 4:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Session I • September 15 - October 20

Session II • Dec. 8 - Jan. 19

No more than six students per class work together to improve their singing technique, to learn songs (Solo & Ensemble, choir auditions for example), to perform songs, and to learn to support fellow performers. Each class begins with a group vocal warm-up, continues with group or individual work on songs and includes independent work. Daily singing in front of classmates will help everyone to decrease stage fright. A supportive and nonjudgmental environment will be strictly maintained by the instructor. 8th grade and up. Taught by Dr. Judith Durocher. 6 weeks
